John Wehrman Is Trophy Winner At Palos Verdes Club

Messals and Wehrmans Also Monopolize Mixed Four-some Awards

John Wehrman of San Pedro won the play-off for the scores last Saturday in the Palos Verdes Golf Club's membership-guest tournament against Tom Forster, also of San Pedro. Wehrman scored an 80 and Forster, an 81. In the mixed foursome Sunday, Mrs. George Messal of San Pedro and John Wehrman carried off high honors with a 78 score. Curiously, Mrs. Wehrman and Mr. Messal took the low net award with a 72. Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Hughes of the Navy, won the tin whistle tournament. Last Sunday's play was the heaviest in the Palos Verdes course has enjoyed in over two years, with 140 present. Attendance has more than doubled on the course since February, probably due to the substantial lowering of dues.

City Champs Want Night Games Here

Manager Laurence E. Reshaw, 4905 Buchanan street, Los Angeles, manager of the Pacific Fruit Express Company ball team, last year's champions of Los Angeles and Glendale, wants to book some games with night ball teams in Torrance and vicinity. In his letter to the sports editor of this paper he asks managers of teams here who are interested in his offer to write him immediately. He particularly addresses the manager of the All Star night ball team, but he is probably not aware that the All Stars are ade of 14 years and under.

Two Entries In So. Cal. Finals Next Saturday

Zamperini and Ishikawa Qualify for Big District Meet

Two of the four Torrance entries in the Southern California preliminaries held Saturday at Los Angeles high school placed in their events, giving them the right to participate in the finals which will be held next Saturday. Louis Zamperini placed first in the 1320, Class B distance event, with a mark of 3:23.6, which was fast time compared with that made in other meets of the same type Saturday. Louie's event is the mile, which is a Class A event, but because of certain regulations as to age, weight, and class in school he was entered in the B division. Louie has not lost a race this year and is expected to take first in the finals next Saturday. Susumi Ishikawa, who has also been a consistent point-winner during the Marine League meets, placed fifth in the pole vault. Ishikawa has topped 11 feet 3 inches during the season, but was unable to stand the pace set by Metz of Fremont, who soared 11 feet 9 inches to win this number.

Bluebirds Move Up a Notch In Club Standing

Lose to Anaheim, Toppie Westminster In Fast Games

Spud Murphy's Bluebirds lost to the Anaheim team, last year's champions of the National Night Ball League, at the opening game of the home grounds Friday night, 2-1, in a game which went 11 innings. An error by Vonderhabe at short let in the winning tally. A crowd of more than 1000 watched the play. About 150 of the faithful traveled to Westminster Tuesday night to see the Bluebirds trim that outfit, 7-1, and move into third place in the league standing. A change in the batting order put Wolfe in the lead-off and Paul Neva in the clean-up position, with Leonard, Alesso and Watson following. Good results from the change were noted, as Torrance got 13 hits off Errington, including a homer by L. Neva, who also cleaned the bags in the ninth with a screening triple. Neva had a field day with the willow, getting four hits out of five times at bat.

Slow Game Is Won, 22-11, By L. A. Nippons

First Game On Home Grounds Spells Defeat For Merchants

Ray Townsend's Torrance Merchants lost their first game on the home grounds Sunday afternoon to the Los Angeles Nippons, 22-11. A bombardment of hits on both sides with an unusual number of passes to first, accounted for the heavy scoring. The freak pass situation, Manager Townsend said, was due to level with the plate, instead of being raised some 18 inches above it as is the regular arrangement, and this bothered the pitchers considerably, and ruined their low-ball delivery. The Nippons started off with a rush in the first inning, with four hits, two of them homers over the left field fence, and five runs. The Merchants came back with six in their half. The lead wavered from one side to the other until the fifth, when Davengport was driven from the box under a deluge of 12 runs. Yelovich replaced him and held the Nippons, who loafed along at an easy gait through the last four innings, to two hits and no runs. The game lost its kick at this point, for Torrance was unable to cut down the Japs' long lead. Score by innings and summary is as follows: Nippons—Runs.....580 212 000—22 Hits.....430 3 61 100—20 Torrance—Runs.....621 0 00 200—11 Hits.....282 1 10 311—12 Bases on balls: Off Davengport, 7; Yelovich, 2; Matsura, 10. Two hits: Mann, Conroy, Tanaka, Harris, 2; Takahashi, Makamuro, Matsura. Three-base hit: Platt. Homers: J. Venable, Davengport, Harris, Horio. Hit by pitcher: Platt. Struck out: By Davengport, 5; Yelovich, 4; Matsura, 2. Double play: Conroy to Venable. Umpires: Lobeck at the plate, Buck on the bases.

SPORTS

Capacity Crowds Fill Stands At Night Ball And Sunday Games

Cold weather and a high, disagreeable wind kept some people away from the grand opening of the new city ball park Friday night, but there would not have been room for them if they had come. The stands were packed to capacity, with many people standing in the entrances. Those who came were well protected from the weather by the fine construction of the stands which have been roofed over and backed up with a tight fence which kept out the breeze and dust and made conditions as comfortable as could be expected because of the cold. Preceded by a big parade led by the American Legion from corner city officials and visiting notables, which circled the downtown business district, the crowd followed down Arlington to the new park. After the preliminary speeches of dedication by Mayor W. T. Klusman, Councilman Scott R. Ludlow, Mr. Williams, representing the mayor of Anaheim, the ball game was on. G. S. Evers officiated at the microphone to announce the batting list and call the plays as the game proceeded. Both teams presented a fine appearance in their natty uniforms, Anaheim wore gray shirts, white trousers, white stockings with red and blue stripes. The Bluebirds are decked out in new uniforms of white shirts, blue trousers, white stockings with single blue stripe and blue caps. City police and firemen were on hand to maintain order and handle the traffic. It is estimated that a crowd of more than 1000 was on hand for the big event, including dozens of the youthful fans to whom passes have been issued. Fully as many if not more fans turned out Sunday afternoon to watch the first hard ball game of the season on the home grounds. The same ceremonies were enacted, with Mayor W. T. Klusman decked out in his top hat to pitch the first ball, which was caught, yes, caught, by Chief of Police G. M. Calder. Manager Ray Townsend, immediately started negotiations to sign them up as a new battery for his team. The new field is a credit to the officials who planned and built it, with a hard-packed infield, and level outfield. For night ball games it is one of the best playing fields in the district. For hard ball games, however, the outer gardens are a little short, as was shown by the numerous homers recorded in Sunday's game when the ball was hit over the left field fence into rough ground. With a heavy hitting team, such as the Torrance Merchants showed themselves to be, this is a disadvantage to a weaker opponent. However, the park fills the bill very nicely and will provide a place of recreation for hundreds of people during the seasons.

Point Winner For Compton Juniors

Pete Zamperini, Louie's big brother, also a miler who runs for Compton Junior College, placed third in the first annual Western Division Southern California Junior College meet held at Occidental College Saturday. Winning time was 4:32.3. Compton placed second in the meet.

Merchants Split Twin Bill With H. City-Navy

Two Short Games Sunday Marked By Heavy Hitting

Walt Morris' Lomita Merchants took on two games Sunday, both for short innings, and lost, 11-6, to the Harbor City Merchants, who got 20 hits off Patalona. Rowan, Harbor City second baseman, got five out of five trips to the plate; Butler, first baseman, four out of five, while Pete Markham for the home team got three walks and a double in four times up. Walker, pitching for the visitors, struck out 11 men; Patalona seven. The Merchants turned on the U. S. S. Salt Lake City team and won handily by a score of 10-4. Heavy hitting featured this game also, with Bryan connecting safely four times out of five. Williams got a double and triple, Van Tress a homer. Atwood played a sensational game at first base.
